LEXINGTON PRIMARIES.

John J. Riley Rominsted for Police Judge by the Democrats. LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 1.—The democratic city and county primary was held Tuesday. John J. Riley was nominated for police judge by a majority of 1,273 over Robert A Downing. Hon. George B. Kinkead was nominated for city solicitor over W. Rogers Clay by a majority of 203, John Miner, A. J. Oots and J. Wood Browning contested for councilman from the Second Ward. Minor's plurality was 460. Frank Bullock, for county judge; John R. Allen, commonwealth's attorney; W. C. G. Hobbs, legislative representa-ent; J. C. Rogers, circuit clerk; Claude Chinn, county clerk, and W. P. Kimball, county attorney, had no opposition. A majority of the gold democrats joined with the regulars.

"MAGNETIC HEALER"

Who Must Get a License, Says Secretary of State McCormick. LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 1.-Prof. Frank Fanning, the 'magnetic healer," who hails from the Lone Star state, was notified Tuesday by Dr. J. M. McCor-mick, secretary of the state board of health, that he is engaged in the practice of medicine in violation of the laws of this state. Dr. McCormick's message further says: "I am instructed by the board to inclose you a blank application and to warn you to at once desist from practice until you have complied with the provisions of the statute." Fanning denies that he is violating a state law, claiming that he is not "practicing medicine." He says he will not comply with the provisions of the statute and expects to be arrested.

IN HIS SLEEP.

He Talked With the Woman He Murdered and Was Captured. LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 1 .- That the Negro captured here last week by Constable George Rose is John Jefferson, wanted in Oneonta, Ala., for the murder of Willie Dentley, a colored woman, there seems no doubt, Constable Rose received Tuesday a minute description of Jefferson, which f ts the man here even to a scar on the abdomen made by a pistol ball. In a drunken nightmare, Jefferson fancied he was being pursued by his victim and pleaded with her to leave him. This led to his capture. He is being held for the Alabama sheriff. There is no reward for Jefferson and Rose has even had to pay for telegrams concerning

Batch of Suits Compromised. Louisa, Ky., Sept. 1.-The Chesapeake and Ohio railcoad Tues lay com promised 21 damage suits which have been pending in the Lawrence circuit court since last fall. The company will pay each plaint if $50 and settle all the costs. The suits resulted from the failure of the railroad to return these people to Louist by special to in the prisoner.
